

to talk about the lack of programs we've found for him since he aged out of public school in May 2007. We arrived at 9:40am and would have had to ^{stand} waiting several hours to testify. ~~Since my son~~ My son has moderate to severe autism and I didn't think he ~~could~~ could endure that wait.
Please feel free to call me if you'd like to hear what I planned to say.
