Message:

Attended the Republican Women's Luncheon today with guest speaker, Stacey Decker regarding election integrity. As you prepare to vote on these issues, please keep in mind one thing: She said that if "same day registration is passed", she will resign and other election officials must feel the same way. She said they can hardly keep up with voter protocols with a 30-day cut off period as it is and still conform to current rules and regulations. I agree with her. At least 50% of Americans who vote now have serious doubts about election integrity. Get rid of "mail-in" ballots and ballot harvesting.

I am also totally in favor of purging the voter rolls on a frequent basis, sharing information with other states about people who moved in or out and prosecuting those who commit voter fraud to the full extent of the law.

Thank you!
