Message:

Honorable Committe Members:

Please, please, please do not follow precedent and carve Texas up into districts that are bizarre and only justified by the ruling party's desire to stay in power despite past redistricting committee's attempts to deny this fact. If you truly want to heal the divides in our great state, risk losing your next election and take a clear step toward power neutral redistricting. It's not going to finish the bridge across the divide, but it's another step in building that bridge.

Thank you for your consideration,
Pam Frierson
