Message:

As Texas continues to grow and diversify, districting needs to accurately reflect the parties and beliefs of constituents, red or blue. Latino population growth is the primary factor in Texas acquiring two new seats in Congress effective in next year's election. Being a young Latina, I am a strong supporter for Hispanic communities being properly represented. The proposed redistricting weakens minority voices and strength incumbents. The proposed redistricting has been clearly drawn for partisan benefit, and not the benefit of constituents.
