Message:

Part of the wonder of the American democracy is free and fair elections for ALL citizens. These voting rights should be non-negotiable, and these rights should not be short-changed by gerrymandering and redistricting designed to "choose voters" rather than allowing votes to choose their representatives. All of us, no matter our skin color or party, deserve to be served by someone who represents their policies and beliefs. Only by drawing fair, equitable maps that create commonsense, local congressional districts can we achieve that goal. Do the right thing and draw maps that adhere to population rather than party or ethnicity. Please.
