Message:

I have recently become aware of the redistricting measures that are trying to take place in my county. I live in Montgomery county which represents a rural feel but still with larger townships. I love where I live and I love the county I live in. I am satisfied with our policies and the people who Govern them. With the new Proposal it would mean expansion of Harris county which I oppose. My county is predominantly red and holds those values I represent. Harris county is predominantly blue with more liberal views which doesn't represent my values. With Harris county also come higher taxes, more crime and eventually more expansion. I feel my voting rights are more protected in my county with policies that assure my vote counts whereas I don't feel that my vote would count in Harris county. Thank you
