Message:

I am currently in U.S. House district 6 and by the proposed redistricting map I can see that the same partisan game is being played.

The proposed map change for district 6 is a fabulous example of gerrymandering at it's finest. Stop trying to draw district lines for the sole purpose of keeping your party in power. You are disenfranchising voters by throwing heavily urban areas into more rural communities that do not have the same needs or interests. A wonderful example of this facts can be seen in the redrawing of the map in such a way that my community in south Fort Worth is now tied to Parker county...just like the State Senate map. Rural/Semi-Urban areas choirs not be determining representation for a more heavy diverse urban population.

Redraw a fair map.
