Message:

As has been proven during the past two years, the unnecessary and draconian lockdowns by Democrat-run state governments has forced a migration of US citizens to flee said states and head to states like Texas and Florida to regain some semblance of life and liberty. With this huge uptick in new arrivals, as well as the open-sieve we used to call the southern border, it is necessary for redistricting to accurately reflect the changing societal dynamics. I support the Republican efforts in this manner, and I curse democrats for attempting to damage the great state of Texas.

V/r

Pedro Garcia
