Message:

Concerning the new redistricting map I think that it intentionally discriminates. Most of the growth in Texas came from the people of color (about 95%) but the new maps do not reflect that. Also the maps deliberately divide Hays County to put our representative primarily in Comal County where she is not known. Why? You are holding hearings on the complex maps three days after they were released, and holding them in both the House and Senate at the same early morning hour, 9:00. You seem to deliberately limit time for public comments. You are suppose to represent all the people in Texas. I'm trying to understand your actions but have a problem with it.
