Message:

The 17th congressional district has an absurd little section that sticks out to the southwest. I live in this absurd little section where I am between Austin and Round Rock, but do not get to vote in the congressional districts for either of them. My area would be better served and represented by one of the other surrounding congressional districts like district 31 or district 10. Or even better, the Austin and Round Rock area should not be split among 6 different congressional districts, and they should all be adjusted to better serve the Austin and surrounding areas.
