Message:

Senate Committee,

I want to explain to you why I hope that Rockwall County will not be redistricted with counties that do not share our values. I was a single parent, when I moved from Houston, Tx. My daughter had just graduated from college and was offered a job to work for an oil company in Dallas, Tx. She wanted to move with her, so I could be close to her. It was my chance to move out of city. I called a friend of mine in the real estate business to look for me a house in Rockwall, as we had done our research on this beautiful town. We made several trips from Houston to Rockwall trying to find the right house. I quit my job, and moved. That was in 2003.

I found that Rockwall had that small town faith in God, respect for the unborn, and alot of patriotism, Latinos and East Texas people living here as well. This was the place to call home.

It didn't take long to make friends, joined the Catholic church, Rockwall County Republican party, Rockwall County Republican Women and Rockwall County Republican Hispanic Club.

Rockwall has always been part of Congressional District4 4, including East Texas counties, so please let Rockwall County remain in the same district.

Thank you,
Tina Heathington
