Message:

If I understand correctly, I am probably too late to make a difference. I understand the Senate has passed a bill on to the House designed to obstruct the rights of people to vote. To make it as difficult as possible, to ensure only Republicans win in the future.

I am a white, retired educated woman. I spent my life doing what was morally and ethically right. If you are afraid that allowing all citizens the right to vote in a manner that is easily and safely done, you are ignoring your oath of office.

Please do what you can to make voting safe and easy for all citizens, no matter their color or station in life. Remember, they are the ones paying the taxes and putting in all the hard work that keeps Texas going.

Undo the corrupt items designed to do the opposite in the bills you are working on now.

If you get away with making a law to obstruct voting for those you feel are less than worthy, think of what happened in the 50-60's when black citizens unleashed their power. Don't you think you may inspire the same to happen again? Accept what is right. Do what is right.

Thank you.
