Message:

I am very unhappy with the new redistricting and the incredible gerrymandering going on. I think the districts need to better represent the diversity in Texas. How could it be possible that people of color have increased, yet one of our minority majority districts is now being taken away? Obviously people can see that this is intentional and we are not going to be happy to just sit back and let this happen. We want it to be fair. I am disappointed.
