Message:

Thank you for the opportunity to comment. I am counting on you to create districts that are fair and not gerrymandered to give any one political party a political advantage. I urge you to review maps put out by others, especially by the ACLU, whose mission is to seek fair representation. This redistricting work you're undertaking is critical to the functioning of our democracy. All Texas residents should have equal representation. Please do your best to see they get it. Thank you.
