Concerning Redistricting-

--People are tired of the unfair gerrymandered districts in Texas. Texas is turning blue because the Republican party we grew up with that was fair, honest, ethical, fiscally responsible and morally upright has or is now disintegrating (due mostly to Trump). Do Republicans really believe the only way they can stay in power is to gerrymander the system--I don't, I think if Republicans start acting like the party we used to be--people would come back to the party in droves. I can't tell you how many people have "shaken their heads" and left the party, since its main constituents are comprised of all the crazies and "loud mouths".

It's time for the voters to pick our politicians and not the politicians, pick their voters.
