Regarding: Congressional

Message:

Once again, I feel that I have no representation in Congress. My area (northwest Austin) is combined with more rural areas. In case this hasn't been noticed, our issues and needs are different. So I'll have a congressman who has no interest or care about what my preferences might be just to hold onto a seat and who panders to the extreme side of his party instead of seeking consensus. This is wrong on so many levels. I would like the people to choose their representatives rather than having elected officials choose their voters. This is not the way American is suppose to operate.
